February 2023

From your Commodore:

The Holidays are over, company has gone home, and we are getting back to normal.

Thanks to Mike and Chris for their work in organizing the New Year's Cruise at St. Helens. We enjoyed catching up with all our boating friends over dinner at the Klondike.

We are looking forward to another year of cruising and will be attending as many as we are able. First up is the Valentine Brunch Cruise Followed by St. Paddy's at Hadley's Will there be corn beef and cabbage????????????

There are plenty of Cruises that need a host so do not be shy.

As I start my second go-around as Commodore, I look forward to the year ahead as we recover from the pandemic and our participation and membership grows. With that in mind this year is the first time in our 65-year history any one has survived twice as commodore so if you never been, it is time to step up for Vice commodore and learn the ropes to be the 2024 commodore.

Ray

From your First Lady:

A way we go, a start of a new year of boating adventures!

We hope there are many adventures and great get togethers. I bet we'll have great food and lots of fun had by all.

Our first adventure will be at Portland Yacht Club. It will be brunch on Saturday, February 11th for Valentine's Day. (Thanks Melody T. Bring money).

The next adventure is at Hadley's Landing. We will be celebrating St. Patrick's, March 10th-12th. Ray is making his famous Corned Beef and Cabbage. It's some good stuff!!

I would like to send cards to people that may be sick, hospitalized and those that are in need of sympathy. Please pass the information to me. Thanks

Hope to see a lot of you out at some of these boating adventures.

To Happy Boating Adventures NOTS!

First Lady, Jennifer G

NEW YEARS CRUISE – St. Helens, Klondike Restaurant

Mike and Chris Kondrat:

Celebrating the end of 2022 and the beginning of 2023 was a bunch of fun. We had 19 people for an early dinner at the Klondike Tavern. Members came by car and we had five boats on the dock. The Klondike, under new management, did an excellent job hosting us and the meals were very tasty. Everyone reported that they really enjoyed it. For those of us on our boats Ken and Cheryl hosted folks to bring in the new year. We didn't make it since I was nursing my broken finger.

Happy New Year to everyone in NOTS. We look forward to a great cruising year.
